"COREA- Ballo di San Vito" is the award of this section

A section dedicated to school in general (documentaries admitted too)

CONDITION FOR ADMISSION

The competition is open to directors and productions firms that present shorts made in 35mm film, 16mm film, digital or beta.

The longest duration admitted is twenty minutes; the oldest production year admitted is 2005.

For the preselection, films must be in minidv or dvd format; each participant can send two works at the most, but finally only one will be admitted.

Works selected in 2008 by other festival organizations for the provinces of Bari, Brindisi, Lecce, Taranto up to the 6th edition of this festival, will not be admitted, under immediate pain of banishment from Salento Finibus Terrae.

Works selected in the previous Salento Finibus Terrae editions will not be admitted

The authors of the works chosen for the festival will receive a communication from Day by Day. Within fifteen days from this communication, every author must send a minidv or beta or 35 mm film copy; for 16 mm film, a beta or minidv copy must be sent.

Each author will be considered responsible for the content of the presented film; in no case, neither the organizers nor the jury will be.

Registrations must be received within 30th April 2008 (for the deadline of delivery, the stamp will be checked).

The works participating in the festival will be shown on our web site www.salentofinibusterrae.it Works must be sent by mail (indicating: no commercial value) including this regulation completed with the registration form signed on every page. Also the dialogue list written in English must be attached.

DVD or minidv works sent for the preselection will not be given back. Only the original material in master beta, minidv and film will be given back by 15th September 2008 : the expedition expenses will be carried by the addressee.

Uncompleted and/or illegible material will not be considered. Shorts and all material expediting costs are at participants' expenses, possible customs duty included. The festival management is not responsible for theft, damages or loss of works.
