CONDITION FOR ADMISSION

The competition is open to directors and productions firms that present shorts made in film and/or digital format.

The longest duration admitted is twentyfive minutes and the oldest production year admitted is 2008. For the preselection, films must be in DVD or MINIDV PAL format. Each participant can send one work for section at the most.

Works selected in 2010 by other festival organizations for the provinces of Bari, Brindisi, Lecce, Taranto up to the 8th edition of this festival, will not be admitted, under immediate pain of banishment from Salento Finibus Terrae. Works selected in the previous Salento Finibus Terrae editions will not be admitted.

The authors of the works chosen for the festival will receive a communication from Day by Day. Within fifteen days from this communication, every author must send a MINIDV PAL, BETA SP PAL or HDV 1080 50i. Each author will be considered responsible for the content of the presented film; in no case, neither the organizers nor the jury will be. Registrations must be received within 31st March 2010 (for the deadline of delivery, the stamp will be checked).

The works participating in the festival will be shown on our web site www.salentofinibusterrae.it

Works must be sent by mail (indicating: no commercial value) including this regulation completed with the registration form signed. Also the dialogue list written in English or Italian must be attached.

Day by Day will give back no work. In case of a possible restitution, Day by Day must receive a written request and the expediting cost will be at the participants' expenses, possible customs duty included. Uncompleted and/or illegible material will not be considered. The festival management is not responsible for theft, damages or loss of works. For further information please contact this e-mail: salento@salentofinibusterrae.it

School competition:

In this section, students and teachers of Italian and foreign, primary and junior and senior high schools will be involved, the subject is "BULLYING".

This regulation must be signed by the School Manager and/or the school legal representative who shall gather a definite permission given by the parents or the one who has the paternal authority for every Minor participating as an author or an actor

Through this regulation signature, the School Manager and/or the school legal representative allows Day by Day srl to publish photos and news concerning participating works on daily, weekly and monthly publications and festival catalogue, in order to promote also this festival. Besides, the School Manager and/or the school legal representative allows Day by Day srl to show the whole short film during other national/international movie projections, also through tv and internet, against no reward, and exonerates Day by Day henceforth from any responsibility in case of an improper use of the works by third parties.

A proper commission will select the finalist works. Day by Day will communicate the finalists by e-mail or registered mail or fax.

The ones who will be selected shall send a minidv or dvd pal copy to Day by Day srl, Via Santa Trinità, 21 -59100 Prato (PO), Italy within 31st March 2010. The longest duration admitted is 20 minutes.

SELECTION AND PRIZES

Every end of month starting from 30th October 2009, a commission appointed by the festival art director will meet to select the works sent to our agency. The shorts selected will be communicated to the author/production firm by phone or by e-mail.

All the shorts that will arrive after the 31st March will be taken into account for the Salento

Finibus Terrae's next edition.

The festival will take place in San Vito dei Normanni and, possibly, in other towns.

The response of the jury is indisputable.

All the shorts received- the unselected ones included- will be placed in the "Mediatheca Salento Finibus Terrae" of the Culture and Tourism Assessorship of San Vito dei Normanni town.

These works will be filed and kept and can be used only for a private vision in the mediatheca.

Through this regulation signature, the Author allows Day by Day srl to publish photos and news concerning his own works on daily, weekly and monthly publications and festival catalogue, in order to promote also this festival. Besides, the Author allows Day by Day srl to show the whole short film during other national/international movie projections, also through tv and internet, against no reward.

The author prohibits the use of its own works in a context that could compromise his own dignity, exonerating Day by Day henceforth from any responsibility in case of an improper use of his works by third parties.

100MINUTI CORTI TOUR

This tour is strictly bound to the festival. It is an itinerant review proposing the best shorts, that have participated in the different editions of the festival, in various Italian cities. These shorts, according to the art director's discretion, will be included in this tour.

During the tour legs, the audience can vote for the best film; the winner will receive the Ben Hur statuette during the 9th edition (2011)

The participation to the competition implies the full acceptance and respect of the above regulation in every part of its.

This regulation is written in Italian and English Language: in case of linguistic misunderstanding about the translation, the Italian language will have the prevalence.

Should any dispute arise between the parties, the only authorized court is the one of Prato without fail.
